Make the Wheels Go 'Round

Men Who Look After Important Matters at the Capital.

James C. Courts, clerk of the House Ap-

White Busbey, secretary to the Asher C. Hinds, clerk to the Speaker's

Charles A. Edwards, clerk in the minor-

William Loeb, secretary to the Presi-

Of the six Mr. Cleaves has been longest

Of the six Mr. Cleaves has been longest in the service of Uncle Sam. He began in practically his present place, away back in 18.3, four and thirty years ago, when the Hon. Lot M. Morrill, of Maine, appointed him clerk of the Senate Appropriation Committee, which had been a part of the Senate machinery only six years. Mr. Loeb has seen less grovens. Mr. Loeb has seen less grovens. Mr. Loeb has seen less grovens. Well, let's have such an act drawn up years. Mr. Loeb has seen less govern- and passed," quoth the Speaker; and it hental service than any other of the half was done.
dozen, yet, because he is next to the Mr. Busbey thereupon gave the signa court stenographer when Roosevelt was before Mr. Cannon's own signature could made governor. His salary might have been be accepted on the warrants. of typewriting for some one of the news-paper correspondents. One day, in 1899, directly after Roosevelt's inauguration as governor, when such work seemed unommonly scarce, the governor himself leaving it until I got a promotion."

tenped out of the little private office. "It will be a promotion," was the stepped out of the little private office which Gov. Hughes now, declines to use, field. You will not have to watch the him his private secretary. Later he brought him to Washington and made him his secretary while Vice President. When elevated to the Presidency Roosevelt put Loeb in as assistant to Cortelyou,

It is only the truth that Mr. Loeb was ! not very well liked at first by the news-the real Loeb when giving him the first under the weather. I hope you are dictation; the impression then received well again, but it's all right anyway.

schools. By the time he was twenty-six before Roosevelt found him, he had been private secretary to two or three short above the average height, dark of skin, He seems to have his jaw half set when is a well-groomed man in every larly, using some sort of a patent exer-clser at home daily. He walks also, and Jackson's Hole, that magnificent hunting ground just south of the Yellowstone Park where horse thieves and other far whenever a sheriff's posse gets too close.

L. W. Busbey's Multifarious Duties. loon after "Uncle Joe" Cannon felt sure news which must of necessity originate cessity of remembering them." in the Speaker's office should get out he took the job because he thought he of them had thought all along that Reed clerkship the total appropriations have carried 254,712 passengers. The new act Well, hardly!" Macdonald remarked, and made no attempt to keep pace with the tion to his article is that he entirely missing the control of them had thought all along that Reed clerkship the total appropriations have carried 254,712 passengers. The new act Well, hardly!" Macdonald remarked, and made no attempt to keep pace with the tion to his article is that he entirely missing the control of the made no attempt to keep pace with the tion to his article is that he entirely missing the control of the made no attempt to keep pace with the tion to his article is that he entirely missing the control of the made no attempt to keep pace with the tion to his article is that he entirely missing the control of the made no attempt to keep pace with the tion to his article is that he entirely missing the control of the made no attempt to keep pace with the tion to his article is that he entirely missing the control of the made no attempt to keep pace with the tion to his article is that he entirely missing the control of the made no attempt to keep pace with the tion to his article is that he entirely missing the control of the made no attempt to keep pace with the tion to his article is that he entirely missing the control of the made no attempt to keep pace with the tion to his article is that he entirely missing the control of the made no attempt to keep pace with the tion to his article is that he entirely missing the control of the made no attempt to keep pace with the tion to his article is that he entirely missing the control of the made no attempt to keep pace with the tion to his article is that he entirely missing the made no attempt to keep pace with the tion to his article is that he entirely missing the tion to his article is that he entirely missing the made no attempt to the made no ought to. "I don't know a piece of news had carried things with too high a hard, been sixteen billions and a half.

No half dozen men in Washington, Cab- have said, "and I won't have half time title "Czar Reed" to him. As for Reed.

people in good shape, and I want all gasped out uiring letters properly answered." 'Hinds, Busbey has been filling the duties thus utilined ever since, and he is one of the

"Well, let's have such an act drawn up

Chief Executive, he is oftener mentioned ture "J. G. Cannon" as he would write it in print than all the others put together.

Mr. Loeb is forty-one. He began to fight life's battle seriously in Albany, N. Y., where was an unassuming, rather timid court stenographer when Boosevelt was court stenographer when Boosevelt was a property and the special act would have to be passed to the special act would have larger, and, with several others of his calling, he used to frequent the crumbling State capitol after his regular daily stunt was over, hoping to get an occasional job of typewriting for some one of the news-into the "big room," where he receives editorial policy as to State politics and everybody, politicians and ordinary worms of the dust, impartially, and asked that doesn't gee with what you write. The policy will be made to follow your writ-ing, which will be printed as you send Mr. Hinds is not only the best "parliaa good stenographer and typewriter be policy will be made to follow your writered the typewritten copy. It must have officials. Next day he "cut things loose. been up to the Roosevelt standard, for, They resented it and went to Chicago to next day, when the governor repeated complain to the editor. They found that the owner was but of town.

the point. In effect it was: "See Busbey."

then serving the third President as section of the serving the third President as section in the serving the third President as section in the serving retary. Cortelyou's promotion to a Cabi- pieces. They explained that they hadn't net place lifted Loeb to the proud level known he was the whole thing in Springof secretary to the President, with attendance at Cabinet meetings a part of would be good. After that Busbey's sources of State political news, which hadn't been of the best, improved vastly, and he did so well at Springfield that a fter the session ended.

sessing wide and correct information upon to support an Illinois man for the Pres-Busbey wrote nothing but rapher as can be trusted to brush un news dropping his correspondence but halting sentence without running the one day there came an opportunity for risk of distorting it, and to correct an him to send a pispatch which showed error of fact made in the hurry of dic- that personally he was still for Mc-They also knew him to be dis- Kinley. Within a day or so he received creet to a fault, with plenty of reserve, a letter from the candidate which he and not wanting in the persistence that now prizes very highly. It reads something like this:

"Dear Busbey: I hear you have been had come in contact; Loeb's rise was the There probably is no one in the only logical thing under the circum- United States who knows a greater stances. To-day he stands very well in- number of men who are really worth are like two hands to the overworked presiding officer of the lower House, term State officials and had done a good though it would be difficult to say deal of official reporting. He is a trifle which is the right and which is the left

It is Mr. Hinds' duty to keep fab on technical parliamentary matters, and he has had the job ever since Thomas he talks, and he doesn't talk much. He B. Reed was first made Speaker, save Senator Lott M. Morini as than the Senate them before. No one who ever knew through. great ability, but it is no reflection ness of making appropriations for the exupon Reed to say that he soon began to penses of the United States government little stouter than when he was first seen growing knowledge of what had been sters. They know how to frame up apdone by the earlier Speakers. Reed no- propriation bills better than any me pothooks now, having several pot-hookers | ticed one day that Hinds was constantly of either House. They know the needs making notes from the records.

"Well," said Hinds, "I find I can't remember all these precedents I'm digof Representatives he began to do some ging out and I'm writing them down. I the elbows of the committee chairman, that the increase of deck space now made hard thinking about his helpers. He mean to arrange them so that I can thought harder upon the necessity of find any one of them at a moment's no- available at a moment's notice. having some one with him to see that the tice. That will do away with the ne-

He believed correctly that this was highly ing which was criticised by "Joe" Bailey, He believed correctly that this was highly important.

He made some rulimportant.

He notice distinct of the educational test bailed the notion of bringing law suits between his neighbors or of making his livery few minutes after the phonograph duce the volume of immigration by a bailed the notion of bringing law suits between his neighbors or of making his livery few minutes after the phonograph duce the volume of immigration by a bailed the notion of bringing law suits between his neighbors or of making the copper wire, the bundles containing the copper wire, the bundles of the b respondent of the Chicago Inter Ocean, which post he had held since a year before the McKinley administration began, but the McKinley administration began but the Mc which post he had held since a year before the McKinley administration began, but the McKinley administration began, but the took the job because he thought he took the job because he thought all along that the median of them had thought all along that the median of them had thought all along that the median of them had thought all along that the median of them had thought all along that the median of them had thought all along that the median of them had thought all along that the median of them had thought all along that the median of them had thought all along that the median of them had thought all along that the median of them had thought all along that the median of them had thought all along that the median of them had thought all along that the median of them had the median of the want everything of public interest that showed the latter how his chief felt. sappens in the Speaker's room to go to Speaking almost like a ventriloquist, he

"Hinds, find me something and find it

assest men in the Capitol, or the whole capital, for the matter of that, but he as the work so well in hand that he his first notable victory, to reap the fruits ever seems hurried in the least. One of of the persistently gathered records he had made of precedents. Almost as if by he warrants for the members' pay. Mr. instinct his hand sought one of the ready cannon is not afraid of work, but he has binders in which he had filed the slips or situation. By the time Bailey had fin hed, the opposition cheering him to the he, Reed was ready. Slowly and in his itable Down East twang, the Speaker read from the book a memorandum of a lecision by Crisp exactly parallel to the e Bailey had been criticising. The effect the other side.

After adjournment for the day had taken place Bailey went to Hinds and begged him to allow the printing of his notes of precedents. He said it wasn't fair for the Republicans to keep the in-formation Hinds had dug out of the rec-

"Send in the man I had yesterday; he's all right."

"You'd better make your peace with Busbey," said the editor, "it's orders that his copy shall go as he writes it. He is the paper so far as Springfield goes and nographer was busy, for Roosevelt made the chief is in Los Angeles. I can't help who sits at the Senate end is Thomas P.

"You'd better make your peace with appropriations than any other dozen men instance, John Fox's "Little Shepherd of Kingdom Come," Hamlin Garland's "Caphora and the chief is in Los Angeles. I can't help who sits at the Senate end is Thomas P.

Twain's "You'd better make your peace with appropriations than any other dozen men instance, John Fox's "Little Shepherd of Kingdom Come," Hamlin Garland's "Caphora and the chief is in Los Angeles. I can't help who sits at the Senate end is Thomas P.

find old experts began to do their work. of Tennessee, to Washington, thirty-two years ago, in 1875. Two years later, now thirty years back, he became assistant contact. They thought him a bit of a States, from sea to sea, and from Lakes J. Randall, the Protectionist Democrat crank, and, with few exceptions, could not understand what Roosevelt could see not understand what Roosevelt could see in 1894, with Reed in 1894, and with McKinley in 1894, when he made his then unin his new secretary. The exceptions precedently long speaking tours.

one, thus becoming its first head. Since then the list of Representatives serving says: Cannon, and Holman being among them, knows."

Mr. Courts is Texas born and Tennessee bred, and, just before Cannon's incumbency-he followed Randall-a hu and cry was raised by certain Republicrat, but a former Confederate, who was should, therefore, give place to a Repubfican. It was not right, they said, that the work should be done, or the emolu-

Courts' place as assistant clerk.

Mr. Cleaves, the Senate Appropriations clerk, entered upon his duties under Senator Lott M. Morrill as chairman when Mr. Crisp, of the Democratic per- Finance Committee in 1867, which till suasion, was in the chair. Hinds was then, like the House Ways and Means in editor of the Portland (Me.) Press, the early days, had both found the money and a strong personal admirer of Reed, and appropriated it. When Cleaves be when the latter was first elected. Hinds looks the pure bred Yankee that he is. mittee made all the appropriations, while He has all the true Yankee's persist- now the appropriations for the Agriculence, too, and because of this trait has become the most thoroughgoing "par-liamentary sharp" in the country in the unit of rivers and harbors are made by years he has filled his present place, other committees. A situation almost the Soon after he assumed it he saw the same obtained in the House, and in their value of precedent, and began to study early years of service the two clerks had the records as no one had ever studied to work days, nights, and Sundays to get

Reed failed to recognize his These two men have studied the busiupon Hinds' rapidly ever since they were comparative young-"What are you making so many fer together daily, and whenever bills ap-memoranda for?" asked the Speaker. propriating money for any purpose not propriating money for any purpose not included in the catalogue given above when I see it," Mr. Cannon is reported to and had joined furtively in applying the There is a small room on the top floor to 203,769.

f the Capitol about midway between the wo Houses, near the Rotunda, whose door ears the title "Minority Room." At present, the Republicans being "in" and the Democrats "out," the ruler in this room is the Hon. John Sharp Williams-when ne is there. In his absence the boss is Charles A. Edwards, clerk to the mipority. Edwards bears the same relation to John Sharp Williams that Busbey does to Speaker Cannon. The minority room the place where the minority members f both Houses gather to make their and, like the appropriation clerks, often the dust. sits through a hot session within call of

Edwards knows how to tell a good story, ither verbally or with his pen, and he is

(Copyright, 1907, by Dexter Marshall.)

ROOSEVELT AS BOOK LOVER

Doesn't Like a Preaching Novel, but Enjoys Stories That Reflect Phases of Real Life.

ords away from the opponents. That was fully only the important things. He seems the origin of the monumental work, later to read by paragraphs, not by sentences, printed by the government, under the title and he manages to consume the essence zines and to make it fit into a place in

Close to the Senate chamber, at one end There is no pretense of pedantry about amber of the lower House, at the other A "preaching" novel he cannot endure. nd, sit two men who know more about He likes a story that reflects life, as, for Cleaves. They are, respectively, the chief though not so whole heartedly, Jack Lon-ness he seems to pass by. Poems with the aid of an American phonograph.

as its charman has included some of the most eminent men in the history of the country—Washburn, Dawes, Garfield, enjoy books," he once said, "but she along the shore and camp on the bank.

Hegan Rice's or Kate Douglas Wiggin's trees, the boats being left some fifty his side. people; whichever it is the President in- yards downstream. It was not thought him because he sees construction behind and there clumps of camel thorns, and a

Courts' place as assistant clerk. The man from Syracuse journeyed to Washington, looked over the situation, teok note of the work and the special knowledge it involved, and declined the place.

Suddenly, and without the slighest sound, a tall figure stepped close to the fire, and, passing his eyes scornfully over the tents standing, but 3ct the luggage late. Suddenly, and without the slighest sound, a tall figure stepped close to the fire, and, passing his eyes scornfully over the luggage late. The saint lately "re-canonized" by the sound, a tall figure stepped close to the fire, and, passing his eyes scornfully over the luggage late. adge it involved, and declined the place without the spirituality of St. Francis, the native blacks, allowed them to rest into the boats. They can reach them

The book that teaches the old and the young that the amount of money spent is not the real test of the value of the large and bowed gravely.

The other two men hurried to execute this direction, and Macdonald slipped this direction, and Macdonald slipped belle, in evidence at all the social functions and repaying her social debts on an adequate scale; it is hardly probable come up, their places are on the floor at gratien bill by government experts shows hensive gesture, then pointing to himmean to arrange them so that I can find any one of them at a moment's notice. That will do away with the necessity of remembering them."

WILL REDUCE IMMIGRATION.

Down Influx of Aliens.

Reed approved heartily at the time. A while later he approved with a hundred-fold more heartiless. He made some rul-fold more heartiless. He made some rul-fold more heartiless. He made some rul-fold more heartiless. Where their expert knowledge may be available at a moment's notice.

Mr. Cleaves was born at Brownsfield, oxford County, Me. He was a State senter the refere see deach space how made mandatory on steamship companies will reduce the volume of immigration by 3section, evidently," one of the Englishmen remarked.

"He means that he is the chief of this mandatory on steamship companies will reduce the volume of immigration by 3section, evidently," one of the Englishmen remarked.

"I suppose that is it, and that he expects some sort of tribute," Capt. Mac-senger rates for immigrants.

will limit the number by the same ships shook his head.

| boats, are to 203,763. | For a moment a dull flame glowed in hearing.

Echoes of the "Simpler Days"

Evidence of Much Lavish Hospitality Years Ago.

ust as it would be to compare them with would put Aladdin to shame. the civil war the country went through the pangs of a great birth, and the United States of 1865 was widely separated from the United States of 1860. At that period slaves were still held and all manner of things were cheaper with the exception.

ported from Europe. lay, and more lavishly, to verify this one period, but even then our solons feit the angular lines of chagrin on the Republican faces were transformed into curves of joy. Almost before the echo of the cheers on one side of the House had died away there were even more jubilant cheers on the other side.

In the simpler days, of which the capital afforded and most of the city" were then the capital afforded and most of the cheers on the other side.

In the simpler days, of which the family and "extremely unfashionable part of the city" were then the capital afforded and most of fact, at this epoch Wormley had only one rival, Welcker, whose hotel was just opposite.

In the simpler days, of which the family and "extremely unfashionable part of the city" were then the conducted by a colored man." Now, as a matter of fact, at this epoch Wormley had only one rival, Welcker, whose hotel was just opposite. Wormley the context of the city" were then the capital afforded and most of fact, at this epoch Wormley had only one rival, Welcker, whose hotel was just opposite. Wormley the context of the city" were then the conducted by a colored man." Now, as a matter of fact, at this epoch Wormley had only one rival, Welcker, whose hotel was just opposite. Wormley the context of the city" were then the center of town, which clustered about the capital afforded and most of fact, at this epoch Wormley had only one rival, Welcker, whose hotel was just opposite. Wormley the context of the city" were then the city were th sinch of poverty. The places this article seem potluck.

nost palatial residence in town, the house of W. W. Corcoran, to keep up which he the blood to follow the knife, and he Hotel: used not only his own salary, but bor- learned from his French colleagues to "Senator Cameron paid for himself and rowed magnificently from his friends. Of frappe champagne in a way which made wife $150 per month, and had but two course, he kept an inexhaustible side- him famous. In a word, "Wormley's," in- rooms, Senator Fenton had a parlor, two sent in.

"You go in, Loeb," said some one.
Loeb "went in" and made pothooks to the tune of Roosevelt's dictation for a hour or two. Some time later he delivered the typewritten copy. It must have sent in.

"You go in, Loeb," said some one.
Loeb "went in" and made pothooks to the tune of Roosevelt's dictation for a hour or two. Some time later he delivered the typewritten copy. It must have officials. Next day he "cut things loose."

"You go in, Loeb," said some one.
Loeb "went in" and made pothooks to the young man went to Springfield as you send ing, which will be printed as you send the country, but he is hotel."

So the young man went to Springfield has been or will be read by the Presidence of the United States on American legislative hotel. The war is not only the best "parliange."

So the young man went to Springfield has been or will be read by the Presidence of the United States on American legislative hotel. The war is not only the best "parliange."

So the young in a wisant ferton discovers the send of the most fashionable in the country, but he is thought a parliange.

So the young in a wisant ferton discovers the file of being a "small, oldes in the country, but he is the file of the an or in th

No half dozen men in Washington, Cabliate Ministers, Senators, Representatives, interesting and Twon't have half time enough to see the people who will call title was nervous for one of the few times souri born, but Texas bred, and when he diplomats, or Supreme Court judges, do more to keep the wheels of National Capliate affairs well greased that will be sent to me. Busbey if a sent to me will be sent to me. Busbey if a mewspaper man who recognizes news that affairs P. Cleaves, clerk of the Senate Appropriation Committee.

Nown men in Washington, Cabliate will be was nervous for one of the few times souri born, but Texas bred, and when he in washington of his barrons made the reputation of his souri born, but Texas bred, and when he diplomats, or Supreme Court judges, do upon me or to answer the letters on public in a strong case, and for the life of him house, and for the life of him have said something to the was nervous for one of the few times souri born, but Texas bred, and when he diplomats, or Supreme Court judges, do upon me or to answer the letters on public in a strong case, and for the life of him house, and for the was nervous for one of the few times souri born, but Texas bred, and when he diplomated in Washington did so as cornic to keep the wheels of National Caplian and the was nervous for one of the few times souri born, but Texas bred, and when he diplomated in Washington in Washington in Washington and the expenses of each one in the washington of his souri born, but Texas bred, and when he divided with the washington of his souri born, but Texas bred, and when he was nervous for one of the washington of his souri born, but Texas bred, and when he was nervous for one of the wind washington. He is Mission to the will be well to sent the will be we Busbey's. Edwards took his present place tion that his idols of twenty-five years in 1903. He has the privilege of the floor, back are pulled down and trampled in was much greater general expenditure was all exception to the standards of among members of Congress, for, at that The chief criticism to be made regarding period, wealth was more evenly distribuhis distinguished author is that he does ted, but "high thinking and low living" not know his Washington, and he has not was no more prevalent at the Capital be- was an extravagant and an assiduous en-"read up." To compare the prices of fore the war than it is now. Indeed, tertainer as popular with the Republicans, as with ante-bellum days with the standards ac- venerable old ladies and aged gentlemen epted to-day is manifestly unjust, as un- tell stories of the glory of those times that he beginning of the last century. With So much for before the war. After the things were cheaper, with the exception of wearing apparel, most of which was imported from Europe.

things were cheaper, with the exception ists at one time practically controlled society here. It would be unkind to mention the names of many of these, But there was much lavish hospitality; the members of the House and Senate entertained more generally than they do today, and more lavishly, to verify this one day, and more lavishly, to verify this one day, and more lavishly, to verify this one has only to consult the chronicles of the region but even then our solons feit the Cleopatra's famous dinner, pearl and all, letters in love with life"—seems very apt when one hears him talk about books, writes Maurice Francis Egan, in the Rosary Magazine. The President was brought up among good books, and his children are brought up among good books are not all new. Accent has been put on the fact that he is an omnivorous reader, but this accent is in the wrong place; he reads care—what was the time of the word was cheap.

The Capitol. "The modest boarding fact, at this epoch Wormley had only one rival, Welcker, whose hotel was just best the Capital afforded, and most of them would compare more than favorably with the boarding houses of to-day, for that was the time of abundance and plenty—game and vegetables at one's door, almost—when, if slaves were not employed, service was cheap.

The Capitol. "The modest boarding fact, at this epoch Wormley had only one rival, Welcker, whose hotel was just colored man, but he was a past master in the art of cooking and serving, and noted on both sides of the water for the wonderful suppers that could be had at his hostelry after the theater, ball, or cotil-lion. He knew, as no one but a negro can know, the mystery of cooking terraph and roasting canvasback duck the teresting to copy an article published.

Webster lived in what was then the boarding fact, at this epoch Wormley had only one rival, Welcker, whose hotel was just opposite. Wormley, to be sure, was a fact, at this epoch Wormley had only one rival, Welcker, whose hotel was just opposite. Wormley had only one rival, Welcker, whose hotel was just opposite. Wormley had only one rival, Welcker, whose hotel was just opposite. Wormley had only one rival, Welcker, whose hotel was just opposite. Wormley had only one rival, Welcker, whose hotel was just opposite. Wormley had only one rival, Welcker, whose hotel was just opposite. Wormley had only one rival, Welcker, whose hotel was just opposite. Wormley had only one rival, Welcker, whose hotel was just opposite. Wormley had only one rival, Welcker, whose hotel was just opposite. Wormley had o

Webster lived in what was then the pin and roasting canvasback duck the teresting to copy an article published traditional eleven minutes, so it would some time in the 70's by that Nestor of the Beau Brummel of the upper House,

As to those "simpler days" and the prices that prevailed then it is not uninteresting to copy a paragraph from a Welcker, the cordon bleu of the Capital graph from Charles Dickens, given to him guest in Washington and declaring that he was the best restaurateur in the

"The character of Welcker's entertain approach those of the English Castle and breakfasts and dinners a la carte are about at New York rates, less than those of the Fourteenth street Delmo restaurant prices. The most expensive dinner he has ever given cost $20 a plate.

the finest spread ever set in the Arlington Hotel. There were only twenty persons, and he paid $1,000. Dr. Helmbold paid $96 per day, and his bill for two weeks was about $1,600. A parlor and three bedrooms n the second story of the Arlington, with a small family occupying them, are worth $450 per week during the season, and one guest here pays for a parlor, edroom, and bathroom $300 per month These are some echoes of the "simpler

This most eminent statesman and delightful man, though neither very rich His children know, too, by heart his favorite characters of fact and fiction. It may be the fire drake in the Beowulf, the Leprachauns in Celtic folklore, the gnomes of the Catskills or one of Alice Hegan Rice's or Kata Dauglas Wissin's transfer of the Catskills or one of Alice Hegan Rice's or Kata Dauglas Wissin's transfer of the Catskills or one of Alice tents were pitched in a group of palm that he here, which had burned low, talking and occasionally laughing at there was as much elegance and much some anecdote. Suddenly the man on guard, who had been standing at the land-ward edge of the palm clump, called to them in a low voice, and they hurried to his side. foreign visitors to this country were sure of a seat at Mr. Sumner's table, and it would be difficult to cite a Senator to-day despite the fact that the Upper House is made up of millionaires, who lives in as much elegance and style as did Mr

> Carter's boarding-house, where he is said o have lived, was one of the noted boarding-houses in town, and many dis there. It might be noted in this condistinguished statesman writes, Among the records was one of a vaude- more among officials than it does to-day,

With all due respect to the distinguished the paddles were dipped vigorously and dignity here on the price he is paid, and the boat headed for the middle of the this is true of the President's salary, the river and deep water.

Then from the clump of palm on the salaries of the Cabinet Ministers, the salaries of the judges of the Supreme boats, and was soon lost to sight and represents Washington as it was fifty

SAVED BY A GRAPHOPHONE.

British Exploring Party Managed to Elude An Attack Through a Clever Ruse.

Cleaves. They are, respectively, the chief clerks of the two Appropriations Committees, of which Representative Tawney, of Minnesota, and Senator Allison, of Iowa, are chairmen.

Neither of the appropriation chief clerks is a young man any more. Indeed, there are some echoes of the "simpler though not so whole heartedly, Jack London's "Sea Wolf," and Bret Harte's carlier tales. He has no reserves about Octave Thanet's sociological stories, nor about "Uncle Remus."

Neither of the appropriation chief clerks is a young man any more. Indeed, there are some echoes of the "simpler though not so whole heartedly, Jack London's "Sea Wolf," and Bret Harte's carlier tales. He has no reserves about Octave Thanet's sociological stories, nor about "Uncle Remus."

It is a great pleasure to those who fear that the great authors may be put on the shelf to hear the President talk Dickens. He seems to know his Dickens as well as visiting any districts not heretofore extended to the chief's eyes, and then he appeared to ponder. Near by a rifle leaned against the trunk of a palm, and he picked it up and examined it critically, finally pointing to it and holding up four fingers, and depoint to the smartest boarding houses of to those who were only boys when these find old experts began to do their work.

He seems to know his Dickens as well as visiting any districts not heretofore extended to the chief's eyes, and then he appeared to carlier tales. He has no reserves about of the chief's eyes, and then he appeared to days?" It is a true that Senator and Mrs. Logan lived at Mrs. Capt. Roderick Maedonald, who retained the proper action of the ponder. Near by a rifle leaned against the trunk of a palm, and he picked it up and examined it critically, finally pointing to it and holding up four fingers, as the trunk of a palm, and he picked it up and examined it critically, finally pointing to it and holding up four fingers, as the trunk of a palm, and he picked it up and examined it critically, finally pointing to it and holding up four perhaps the most interesting, according his head. The muck raking, psychological novel to the Philadelphia Ledger, is an account the truth in them, no matter where or when written, appeal to him. Some of Bliss Carman's songs delight him, would run on each record from five to with the help of Kermit he discovered where or when written, appeal to him. Some of Bliss Carman's songs delight him, would run on each record from five to seven minutes. It had been transported been transported by the truth in them, no matter where or the camp, straight out over the desert. For a long time those on the camp could see the tall figure passing on out into the silent vastness, but it presently disappeared in the distance. the truth in them, no matter where or This phonograph was of the disk varinot understand what Roosevelt could see in his new secretary. The exceptions were the correspondents of certain newspapers who had served the same papers who had found out something about the Loeb mettle.

They knew him to be that rare thing, a thoroughly intelligent stenographer, possessing wide and correct information upon seemed and the manner of the paper, it seemed, had sometime and the paper was strong for McKinley's options and the paper, it seemed, had sometime and the paper, it seemed, had sometime and the paper, it seemed, had some the proceedently long speaking tours.

With the help of Kermit he discovered the seven minutes. It had been transported the seven minutes. It had been transported the seven minutes. It had been transported the moth of the with the help of Kermit he discovered the seven minutes. It had been transported the moth of the with the help of Kermit he discovered the seven minutes. It had been transported the moth of the with the help of Kermit he discovered the seven minutes. It had been transported the moth of the with the help of Kermit he discovered the seven minutes. It had been transported the moth of the with the help of Kermit he discovered the moth of the with the help of Kermit he discovered the seven minutes. It had been transported the moth of the with the help of Kermit he discovered the seven minutes. It had been transported the moth of the with the help of Kermit he discovered the moth of the with the help of Kermit he discovered the moth of the with the help of Kermit he discovered the moth of the would run on each record from five with the help of Kermit he discovered the moth of the would run on each record from five with the help of Kermit he gressing by means of flat-bottomed boats, "I will show it to Mrs. " sevelt," the river at this point being shallow and troduces it and his own young people that any danger might arise from this A book like "The Jungle" may interest stretched an open desert, with only here lips.

of the late Dan Lamont, who, like Cortelyou, made the place a steeping stone to a sceretaryship, and was the first man holding the post, after John Hay, to appoint the latter in efficiency. Probably and Loeb ever had so exacting a superior as theirs.

The Speaker's Other Hand.

The Speaker' ade chairman, just after Adkins' retirenan or woman could understand.

The doctrine of the simple life was taken a Syracusan, should take taught long before Pastor Wagner taught other Englishmen, and twelve native the started the Machine.

Taken a syracusan, should take taught long before Pastor Wagner taught other Englishmen, and twelve native talking and laughing with the others. In the party were Capt. Macdonald, two only three rifles would have been folly.

Started the Machine.

but Wagner brought it within the scope searchingly upon the Englishmen. Instinctively he picked out the commander along the water edge."

pleasures of life; the book that shows nificent specimen of manhood they had lieve that the final rush would come so what a human being may get out of the ever encountered. Though tall and some-Always an admirer of those fundamental stories that show the early color of national life, he discovered some time ago man-at-arms was upon his head. These what was their principal charm, he with in the Sahara, and tell grimly of the ville dialogue turn, the words being from and the economy practiced by the statespaused and then answered: "They are so fate of some English khight of long ago, unpagan in their attitude toward ro-mantic love—in them I am attracted by Lion's Heart.

tian sagas, of the relation of lovers." the stranger's salutation, and the two At the root of his admiration for a book men regarded each other, attentively. Then the visitor began to speak, gravely, but with considerable fire. His tongue however, was unfamiliar to any of the other native Africans, and totally unintel-Increase of Deck Space Will Cut ceiving that his words were not underligible to the Englishmen. Presently, perstood, he resorted to signs, and swept his Analysis of the effect of the new immi- arms out in a magnificent and compre-

"He means that he is the chief of this donald replied, and in response to his moment later sank into a confused shout- the sclaries of every member of profession, but didn't like it; he couldn't The advocates of the educational test order there was brought forward one of ing. Evidently the rush had come a United States government. The niggard-

He seems to know his Dickens as well as visiting any districts not heretofore expectary Bonaparte. Thackeray's humor plored, some very interesting and exciting lost by the overturning of one of the lost by and his love for the poor and the afflicted adventures were experienced. Of these boats, and again Capt. Macdonald shook finally, buying the old stone house on appeal to the President.

Quietly the chief replaced the rifle verted into one of the most magnificent against the tree trunk, and with another and interesting residences in town. the camp, straight out over the desert. in Four-and-a-half street for a while,

"Whole Desert Is Moving."

This incident was not of a nature to or very poor, lived up to what was expromote an idea of security in the minds pected of him, and never sordidly or of men at all familiar with the desert meanly. Senator Sumner may have tribes, and one of the Englishmen assumed the duty of sentry for the night, in place of the natives. By 1 o'clock, however, rothing had accurred. Care May be remembered, that he also once ever, nothing had occurred. Capt. Mac-donald and the remaining white man were sitting near the fire, which had burned adjoins the Arlington Hotel, and where

'What is it?" Macdonald whispered. In silence they waited, and then a receive him or her humorously or seri- fuct, as back of the clump of palms there smothered cry broke from the third man's stances. To-day he stands very well indeed among the correspondents.

There is nothing easy about the job held by the secretary to the President. It but the "muck rasker" in fact and lit; but the "muck rasker" in simple gifts of God always awakens the enthusiasm of the President. This is the every move the strength and grace of the an idea for gaining a few minutes' time ing house was a handsome, well-furnished tiger, and he carried himself with an air almost regal. Beneath the folds of his shore and beyond the spear cast had oc- by the great men—and that was in the time to time interrupted by peals of men, or imitation statesmen, of this laughter, and this he placed in the mathe idealism—so unusual on pre-Christian sagas, of the relation of lovers."

Started the Machine.

Lion's Heart.

Capt. Macdonald arose and returned men came creeping back from the boats statesman who puts himself on record and informed him that all but one had already pushed off. Macdonald started was really not so very much more ecothe machine, and then the two, crouch- nomical than it is to-day. If prices were ing low under the shelter of the rushes lower, more, much more, was expected. and wading to their knees in the water, It should be borne in mind that at that hurried to where the last boat was wait- period everybody kept a sideboard, and ing, leaving the phonograph filling the deserted camp with jest and laughter. sidered. But whether he has learned his The boat was pushed off from the shore, ancient Washington or not, the point and for a few minutes allowed to drift he makes is not to be controverted; the down stream, the voice of the machine salary of a Member or Senator is a third growing fainter in the distance. Then less than it should be; he cannot live with shore arose fierce battle cries, which a Court, and of all foreign officials; in fact,